Day 01 – Zürich (Zurich) – Ascona/Locarno

From the airport railway station you travel on to Ticino to Ascona/Locarno, which lies in a spectacular sunny bay at Lago Maggiore. This is one of the best loved destinations in Switzerland. Check in at your hotel and then the rest of the day exploring the city and the surroundings. Overnight stay at Ascona/Locarno.

Day 02 – Ascona/Locarno

Today you enjoy Ascona, the lovely city at the Lago Maggiore. An intricate web of lanes, containing every kind of shop, leads to the piazza, which lies directly on the lake. Enjoy the famous lakefront with its cafés and tables in the sunshine or discover Locarno. Famous for its climate, the mildest in Switzerland with around 2'300 hours of sunshine a year and for its International Film Festival, which takes place in August. Locarno is a small town which has spread over the wide delta of the river Maggia. You can also visit Bellinzona with its Medieval UNESCO Fortress with the three castles Castelgrande, Castello di Montebello and Castello di Sasso Corbaro. Or take part in an excursion to the advances of a world-city with the character of a small town. Overnight stay at Ascona/Locarno.

Day 03 – Ascona/Locarno – Kandersteg

After breakfast, travel to Kandersteg via Domodossola (Italy). The journey goes through the romantic "Centovalli" with its spectacular bridges, falls and light chestnut-forests. Enjoy the wonderful mountain landscape and discover one of the most beautiful hiking areas in the Alps. The mountain villages in the Lötschberg region are gems which have retained their original country character. Overnight stay at Kandersteg.

Day 04 – Kandersteg

Today you can take an excursion to Oeschinensee which is on the application list for the UNESCO World Heritage (not incl. / 50% reduction with your Swiss Pass). From the top of the chair-lift there are plenty of ways leading down to Oeschinensee. All of them take you through a stunning alpine scenery. The lake is about 60 m deep. Snow-melt increases the depth. Overnight stay at Kandersteg.

Day 05 – Kandersteg – Montreux/Vevey

After breakfast, travel from Kandersteg to Spiez. From there you take the GoldenPass Line to Zweisimmen and continue to Montreux/Vevey. The second section of the GoldenPass Line is the only Swiss line offering VIP seating (not incl.) at the front of the train and thus providing a driver's eye view. The ultra-modern trains let travellers feel the unfolding scenery. Overnight stay at Montreux/Vevey.

Day 06 – Montreux/Vevey – Rochers-de-Naye – Geneva

The excursion to the Rochers-de-Naye is one highlight of this tour. It gives the most spectacular view of Lake Geneva and its surrounding Alps. On a clear day, you are able to see the Mt. Eiger, the Mont Blanc massif and Geneva's famous waterspout. In the evening take a boat-cruise from Montreux to Geneva. Overnight stay at Geneva.

Day 07 – Geneva – Luzern

After breakfast, proceed to Luzern by train. Check in at the hotel. In the afternoon visit the 700 years-old wooden Chapel Bridge and the Lion Monument, have a look at the Swiss museum of Transport or do some shopping in the old town of Luzern. Overnight stay at Luzern.

Day 08 – Luzern – Depart for the onward journey

After breakfast, you either proceed to the airport for your onward flight or else continue your stay in Switzerland.

The Classic Scenic Routes

St. Moritz / Davos - Zermatt

Glacier Express

Route: Zermatt - Brig - Andermatt - Chur - Davos/St-Moritz

A fascinating 7 1/2-hour rail journey over 291 bridges, through 91 tunnels and over the Oberalp pass (2,033m/6,670 ft). Experience the Swiss Alps in all their breath-taking magnificence from the comfort of your seat in the panorama car: unspoilt mountain forests, lush Alpine pastures, rushing mountain streams and mountain valleys with their rich traditions stretching back hundreds of years. On a journey as long as this you are bound to get hungry at some point. When you do, treat yourself to the culinary delights of the stylishly appointed dining car. Seat and dining car reservations essential. Commentary during the trip.

Golden Pass Panoramic

Route: Lucerne - Interlaken Ost - Zweisimmen - Montreux

An attractive route, rich in tradition, from Central Switzerland to Lake Geneva. Starting in the historic Lucerne region, the journey takes you over the Brünig pass, past weathered timber houses with their flower-bedecked windows, to the world-famous holiday resort of Gstaad. From here you go over the Golden Pass before dropping down to the idyllic shores of Lake Geneva and their splendid vineyards. For a special ride, why not take a seat at the front of the train and see the scenery from a different view (VIP seats are compulsory and have a special supplement.). Services run daily and frequently in both directions. Between Montreux and Zweisimmen (and vice versa), travelers can now enjoy the "Golden Pass Classic" with refurbished vintage Orient Express cars.

Bernina Express

Route: Chur/Davos/St. Moritz - Berninapass - Poschiavo - Tirano

The Rhaetian Railway's north Alpine route is a 145-km stretch that cuts through Graubünden, offering breathtaking views of the countryside as it travels across viaducts, through winding tunnels, past raging mountain torrents, glaciers and a rich array of Alpine flowers. During the trip over the Bernina pass, the train reaches an altitude of 2,253 m (7,390 ft) and masters gradients of 7%. From Tirano, the journey continues through the Valtellina valley to Lugano (only in summer). Passport or identity card required for border crossings. Reservation essential. Commentary during the trip.

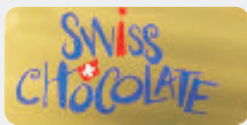

The Classic Scenic Routes

Palm Express St.Moritz - Menaggio - Lugano

Palm Express

Route: St. Moritz - Lugano

This spectacular post bus route takes you on a journey of contrasting impressions from St-Moritz, over the Maloja Pass, to Lugano. Starting out in the tingling "champagne" atmosphere of the Upper Engadine's world-famous health and holiday resorts, you delight in the Mediterranean Charm of the Val Bregaglia and serenely beautiful Lake Como (Italy). Passport or identity card required.

The Swiss Pass is the most complete pass to discover Switzerland. You can use trains, buses and even lake ferries to reach any destination including popular cities like Bern, Geneva, Locarno, Zurich and Lausanne.

In Switzerland, trains, buses and lake ferries are always waiting to take you to your dream destination. Whether you want to take a scenic train for the heights or travel from one city to another, the Swiss Travel Pass is your all-in-one pass for unlimited travel in Switzerland!

Hop on and off trains, buses and ferries at any time according to your desires and encounters. Just show up at the nearest train station ready to explore a new destination. Bear in mind that some private and scenic trains require a seat reservation. Choose from the following principal options.

Swiss Pass

The Swiss Pass gives you an unlimited access to travel on The Swiss Public Transport Network System either on 4, 8, 15, 22 days or one month consecutively. Choose your personal travel route from approximately 20'000 kilometers of Train, Trams, Post Bus or Boat routes. Your personal choice includes the classic scenic routes, the public transport systems of 41 Swiss cities, and gives you 50% discount on most mountain-top excursion trains and cable cars. You all get a free entry to approx. 400 museums.

Swiss Flexi Pass

The Swiss Flexi Pass allows travelers to travel flexibly on their own chosen days. One can use this pass for any 3, 4, 5 or 6 consecutive or non-consecutive days within a period of one month. Between the first and the last validated dates, one gets exactly the same services, facilities and advantages as of the Swiss Pass.

Swiss Youth Pass

Youths under the age of 26 years get a discount of 25% of the full adult fare by obtaining the Swiss Youth Pass. The services, facilities and advantages remain the same as of the Swiss Pass.

Swiss Transfer Ticket

The Swiss Transfer Ticket like the Swiss card offers One Return Transfer from any Swiss Airport or Swiss Border to a particular destination within Switzerland and back. The Swiss Transfer Ticket has a maximum validity of 1 month or is valid between the first and the last transfer date - whatever appears first. For Skiing enthusiasts, this card is highly recommended. Unlike Swiss Card there are no discounts offered on additional excursions, train, tram, post bus or boat journeys.
